

ADANI & CARVALHO ATTORNEYS AT LAW PARTICIPATES IN THE 10th ISSUE OF THE EVENT DOING BUSINESS IN BRAZIL HELD BY THE BRAZIL-CANADA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Adriana Adani, partner at law firm Adani e Carvalho Advogados was in Toronto last month and participated in another Event promoted by the Brazil-Canada Chamber of Commerce, "Doing Business in Brazil – Opportunities & Trending Sectors", directed to Canadian companies interested in expanding exports and implementing business in Brazil.

The opening of the Event was marked by the addressing of the controverted and polemic current economic and political scenario in Brazil, followed by panels that showed the currency of business, ending with a signal that the commercial relations between Brazil and Canada remains very much active.

Although the country is undergoing a major and concerning turmoil, not only in the economic field, but also political and social, was proven that the trading with Canada continue to happen and Brazil is signaling a positive scenario for investments in current times and in the near future, especially in the fields of Technology, Sustainability, Agribusiness and Transportation. There are still promising business in the fields of Mining, Oil and Infrastructure, which were substantially affected by the Country's situation.

The message was that for Canadian companies that want to keep lit their relations with Brazil and also for those that intend to invest in the Country, the Event was able to bring them up to date and suggest paths and tracks to be followed. On that issue, knowledge and understanding of the local culture and legislation, the partnership with solid companies, either small, medium or large-sized ones and support of professionals in the legal and business fields, with expertise in the industries of interest, will allow both entrance and continuity in the Brazilian market.
